

CHAP TEAM NEWSLETTER

APRIL 2022

CHAPPROJECT@FLINDERS.EDU.AU

Members of the CHAP team have been in the spotlight during the past month with recognition being received in various ways including twitter videos, presentations, publications and one of our team members being inducted into the nurse researchers hall of fame! We said farewell to our CPD Coordinator, Dr Stephanie Champion who left to take on a new role and have welcomed Dr Joyce Ramos to assist with the delivery of the CPD program. During April we will host our Governance Committee Meeting and this month's CPD session with a focus on Exercise Training and Physical Activity - see more below.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Our PhD Candidate Katie Nesbitt was asked to create a video for twitter following the publication of her paper in the European Journal of Cardiovascular Nursing in January 2022 on User Experience (UX) Design as co-design methodology: lessons learned during the development of a web-based portal for cardiac rehabilitation. You can view Katie's video outlining the purpose of the project and the methodology used here.

Katie has also been successful presenting this work during the EuroHeartCare Congress in May 2022. Click here for more information about this event.

ACNAP-EuroHeartCare Congress 2022

Annual Congress of the Association of Cardiovascular Nursing and Allied Professions in parallel with the Heart Failure Congress

Congratulations Prof Jereon Hendriks who has been selected for induction into the Sigma Nursing International Nurse Researchers Hall of Fame 2022! Prof Hendriks is among 32 world renowned nurse researchers who will be inducted. Well done to Prof Hendriks for this well-deserved honour!

As part of International Women's Day 2022, Prof Robyn Clark provided a twitter message via the Heart Foundation that you can view here.

Hear how Robyn is supporting a team of outstanding women in heart and stroke research to balance their family and careers.

PRESENTATIONS

The role of arrhythmia nurses and allied healthcare professionals in atrial fibrillation management: easy as ABC?

📅 10 March 2022, from 18:00 to 19:00 CEST

👤 Prof. D.C.L Watkins, Prof. D Lane, Prof. J Hendriks

Contributors: Professor Jeroen Hendriks

📺 Video

Prof Jeroen Hendriks co-presented the session 'The role of arrhythmia nurses and allied healthcare professions in atrial fibrillation management' during the European Heart Rhythm Association (EHRA) and Association of Cardiovascular Nursing and Allied Professionals (ACNAP) webinar in March 2022.

If you are a member of ESC365, can view the online video here.

CARDIOVASCULAR DISEASE AND STROKE
17 MARCH 2022

Professor Louise Hickman
Pro Vice-Chancellor (Health),
University of Wollongong and PaCCSC Cardiovascular Disease and Stroke Hub

Professor Mark Parsons
Professor of Medicine and
Neurology South-Western Sydney
Clinical School, UNSW

Professor Robyn Clark
Professor of Acute Care and Cardiovascular Research and Heart
Foundation Future Leader fellow,
Flinders University

Prof Robyn Clark provided answers to questions on heart failure supportive care in cardio-oncology as part of the Palliative Care Clinical Studies Collaborative (PaCCSC) and Cancer Symptom Trials (CST) Annual Research Forum 2022 on 17 March 2022.

Click here for more information on this event.

PUBLICATIONS AND REVIEWS

PROLIFERATE: A Tool to Measure Impact and Usability of AI-Powered Technologies

Maria Alejandra Pinero de Plaza, Kristina Lambrakis, Erin Morton, Alline Beleigoli, Michael Lawless, Penelope McMillan, Mandy Archibald, Rachel Ambagtsheer, Ehsan Khan, Alexandra Mudd, Robyn Clark, Carlos Barrera-Causil, Fernando Marmolejo-Ramos, Renuka Visvanathan, Alison Kitson

College of Medicine and Public Health, College of Nursing and Health Sciences

Research output: Contribution to conference > Abstract > peer-review

To find out more about PROLIFERATE, a paper has been published on the Research @ Flinders site that you can read here. Congratulations to Dr Alejandra Pinero de Plaza and the team on this hot topic that is being recognised globally.

EVIDENCE

IMPLEMENTATION

BULLETIN: Issue 1, 2022

Research Matters

A transdisciplinary research program addressing complex health research problems

The first edition of JBI's Evidence Implementation bulletin has been released including Dr Alejandra Pinero de Plaza's research on addressing complex heart research problems. Click here to read more.

MEDICATION DATA

Following appropriate ethics and governance approval, the medication data from ICCnet has been received by the CHAP team. Using this data, the team will evaluate prescription of evidence based pharmacotherapy in rural and remote patients with acute coronary syndrome who commenced and completed cardiac rehabilitation program in all the CATCH program locations. Watch this space for further information. Thanks to AstraZeneca for assisting with this component of the project.

AstraZeneca

WHAT'S ON IN APRIL?

NEXT CPD SESSION: Exercise Training & Physical Activity

Wed 13 April 2022 @ 1pm (ACST)

PRESENTERS:

- Prof Carol Maher - Helping inactive post cardiac patients to be active
- Service of the Month - Ceri Johns, Riverland Mallee Coorong LHN
- Facilitator: Dr Joyce Ramos

GET CONNECTED:

Email chaproject@flinders.edu.au for zoom details

Dr Alejandra Pinero de Plaza will be presenting on PROLIFERATE: a tool to measure impact and usability of AI-powered technologies at the Clinica Summit on 20 April 2022.

For further event information including the program, click here.

CHAP TEAM

Our extended team continues to grow. We welcomed Jo Wu and Lisa Chen from the Sunshine Coast who joined into our weekly catch-up meeting. It is great to have so much support from champions with an interest in cardiac and stroke.

The CHAP project is co-funded by NHMRC Partnership Grant (GNT 1169893)